Please "X" workshop choice(s):

The Art & Craft of Writing • Saturday, Sept. 13

Good writing is good storytelling. Learn not just the basic elements of the craft, but how to finesse them. Whether your desire is to write compelling fiction, nonfiction, poetry or prose, this hands-on, invigorating class is for you. Discussions on character, plot, description and dialogue will be mixed with lectures on language, structure, voice and style. And of course, we'll be writing throughout the day!

Finding Your Voice on the Page • Saturday, Oct. 18

Gain the inspiration, self-confidence and know-how needed to put pen to paper, or fingers to keyboard. Whether you've previously written or have always wanted to, this workshop is for you. By tapping into the observation, imagination and language skills you already have, we'll get you writing—and believing in your writing voice—through lectures, small-group discussions and hands-on exercises.

Perfecting the Personal Essay • Saturday, Nov. 15

These aren't the essays you wrote in school. They're your stories, your ideas and your viewpoints. Learn how to successfully get your personal experiences and observations on paper—then published! We'll start with an "Essays 101" overview of the craft, followed by exercises to get you writing and small group discussions. You'll leave with the inspiration and information needed to continue writing at home and, if desired, to market your work.
